Publishing 101: An Introduction to Book Publishing, Contracts, and Copyright Protection.

Rochester, NY – A local publisher and attorney will be holding the informational and networking seminar, “Publishing 101: An Introduction to Book Publishing, Contracts, and Copyright Protection,” Tuesday, June 16th, 11:30 a.m. – 1:30 p.m., at Jay’s Diner, 2612 W. Henrietta Road.

Kelly Sabetta, Founder and President of Betta Book Publishing, and Tracy Jong, Patent and Trademark Attorney of Jong & Associates, will share their expertise with aspiring authors and designers who are interested in learning about the preparation and important components of book publishing. They will help those who are interested in writing, designing, and illustrating books, by guiding them through the publishing process, explaining components of author and artist contracts, and explaining how to obtain additional copyright protection for their work.

This informational and networking seminar will provide the opportunity for writers, authors, artists, illustrators, designers, and creators to learn about each process and to network with one another.

Join Kelly Sabetta and Tracy Jong for this exciting event, Tuesday, June 16th, 11:30 a.m. – 1:30 p.m., at Jay’s Diner, 2612 W. Henrietta Road. Cost is $25. Separate checks are available for lunch. Registration is required. For more information and to register, please call 585-576-5297.
